

Kent Holman Madin

14543 Kelly Canyon Road Bozeman, MT 59715
Tel. 406-587-4732 fax 760-454-7407 rett139@yahoo.com

Born: 5/25/50 Berkeley, California USA

1975 Graduate of Prescott College
B.A. in Outdoor Education
Minors in Spanish and Buddhism
Paul Harris Fellow, Rotary Club

Current Position: Vice-President and Director of Boojum Expeditions Inc., Bozeman, Montana USA.

2011- Board Member/Treasurer Craighead Environmental Research Institute. <http://www.craigheadresearch.org>

2007-2014: Honorary Consul of Mongolia for MT, WY, ID
<http://businessresources.mt.gov/TIR/consularcorps.mcp>

Greater Gallatin Toilet Tradeout: Community Organizer in partnership with City of Bozeman http://www.epa.gov/watersense/our\_water/spring2009.html#2

2005: Founder/President of Boojum Charitable Fund, a non-profit organization providing support and funding for social projects in northern Mongolia.
<http://www.boojum.com/BCF.html>

2004: Second Foreign National Recipient of the "Outstanding Leader in Tourism Development" award from the Ministry of Transportation, Government of Mongolia.

2002-2012: Board Member/Treasurer, Montana Center for International Visitors
www.montanaciv.org

1999-Present: Board Member Bridger Canyon Property Owners Association (First Zoning District in Montana, circa 1972)

1998: Founder of Khovsgol Lodge Management Company, a tourism corporation in Ulaan Baatar.

1997-8: Consultant to the Hustain Nuruu Reserve (Prezewalski Horse) in Mongolia in developing new sources of revenue from tourism involvement

1985: Married to Linda Svendsen in Siziwangqui Banner, Inner Mongolia, China

1991-1993: Consultant to the Humane Society of the United States and The Yellowstone Project in developing a "citizen scientist" program of wildlife research based in Yellowstone National Park.

1984-1991: Managing Director of Baja Expeditions. Responsible for the introduction and development of sea kayaking and whale watching programs in Baja. Baja Expeditions is acknowledged in the industry as having been mainly responsible for inventing the sea kayaking and whale watching industries in Baja. <http://www.bajaex.com>

1984: Partner in Baja Expeditions, an adventure travel company providing natural history and adventure travel programs in Baja California, Mexico.

1984 to Present: Vice President of Boojum Expeditions, currently developing new travel programs in Mongolia. Developing a series of lodges in northern Mongolia for ecotourism. First to introduce both sea kayaks and river rafts to Mongolia for nature tourism.

1984: Founding co-director of Boojum Expeditions a profit making adventure travel company focusing on horseback and adventure travel in Asia. www.boojum.com

1975-1984: Founding director Boojum Institute, a non-profit environmental education institute based in Southern California. Responsible for development of curriculum, marketing, course direction, grant writing. <http://www.boojum.org>

1969: First Prescott College descent of the Grand Canyon in 10ft. long surplus rafts. Directed Prescott College rafting program in Grand Canyon from 1971-75. Seasonal River Guide 1971-2000 (Grand Canyon, Idaho, California, Canada, Mongolia).

References:

Tom Udall: US Senate New Mexico <http://tomudall.senate.gov/>

Jeff Krauss: Asst. Mayor of Bozeman Montana
<http://www.bozeman.net/City-Government/Commission>

Gordon Wiltsie, National Geographic Photographer
<http://www.alpenimages.com>

Tony Whitten: Formerly World Bank-Mongolia
<http://blogs.worldbank.org/eastasiapacific/team/tony-whitten>