

Re: Searching the ownership of a title

From: Elite Titles (elitetitles@gmail.com)

To: rett139@yahoo.com

Date: Friday, August 14, 2020, 12:08 PM MDT

Dear Mr Madin

Thank you for your email.

Yes, the Seated Title service works as you suggest - I will add comments to your questions below.

Kind regards

Andrew

<https://EliteTitles.co.uk> - When Only First Class Will Do.

"Celebrating 22 years in business and Exceeding Clients' Expectations Worldwide Since 1998."

Elite Titles in the news - Read the article in the Daily Mail

Our 5 most Frequently Asked Questions

On 14 Aug 2020, at 17:58, Kent Madin <rett139@yahoo.com> wrote:

Ok.. so I am trying to fully understand how this works. So if I wanted to be the "Viscount of Labradoodle" or the "Earl of Whatchamacallit", it's just a matter of naming some tiny patch of ground and issuing the title (when the check clears)?

Yes.

I'm not trying to be snarky here, I'm just amazed at the business model.

Yes, it is popular with those interested in Titles.

Do you offer titles outside of England?

The land can have any place name you wish, regardless of language.

Could I be the Viscount of Bozeman?

Yes, Bozeman will be the Place name associated with your plot here in England, just complete the order form and submit with the fee.